

LABOR PARTY FALLS

END OF BRITISH LABOR REGIME NOW IN SIGHT

Action of Commons Brings Government To An End.

Premier Asks King For Dissolution Of Parliament

London, Oct. 9.—Premier Ramsay MacDonald, head of the Laborite government formally announced in commons this afternoon that King George had agreed to his request for dissolution of the present parliament. If the Irish boundary commission bill is completed in time, parliament probably will be prorogued tonight and a general election held Oct. 9, the premier said.

Downfall of the laborite government was caused by passage of a motion censuring it for quashing a criminal court case against the editor of a communist newspaper.

London, Oct. 9.—The end of the British labor government is in sight.

A motion, demanding that a select committee of the house of commons investigate the action of the attorney general, Sir Patrick Hastings, in withdrawing prosecution in the case of the Communist, James R. Campbell, acting editor of the Workers' Weekly, charged with inciting his majesty's forces to sedition, was carried by a vote of 204 to 198.

This result was accomplished by a combination of Conservative and Liberal votes. The government declined to accept the motion and treated it as a vote of censure, which, if adopted by the house, would involve an appeal to the country against parliament's verdict.

At the close of debate the opposition wanted to drop Sir Robert Horne's motion of censure and vote on Sir John A. Simon's amendment calling for an investigation. By a vote of 359 to 198 it decided to vote on the Simon amendment. This was equivalent to the defeat of the censure motion, and the Simon amendment became the substantive motion, and was carried.

The house then adjourned on Premier MacDonald's motion. The premier will see the king and ask for dissolution of parliament. It is believed, however, that the government has decided to carry on until the Irish boundary bill is safe and the boundary commission appointed. Observers say the Labor party and the government welcome an appeal to the country and are convinced that they will return a much stronger party, even though they may not command a majority in the house over all parties. They believe they have a good cause to present to the electors in what they argue is the triviality of the question upon which they have been defeated and on their record, especially in the realm of foreign affairs and finances.

TRAFFIC TOLL OF DEATHS INCREASE

Columbus, Oct. 9.—According to figures made public by I. C. Plummer, state registrar of vital statistics, Ohio's automobile traffic toll of deaths increased 9.4 per cent for the first six months of 1924 over the same period in 1923. During the first half of 1923 there were 318 deaths in auto accidents; this year there were 442. Of the total of 442 deaths for the six-month period this year, 54 were at railroad crossings and 26 the result of streetcar accidents, tabulation of the figures revealed. Cuyahoga county led the list with 90 deaths. Only 23 counties in the state reported no automobile accident fatalities.

DEMOCRATS MEET TO PREPARE PLANS

The wheels of the county Democrat machine swung into action Thursday with the announcement that a meeting of the Democratic Central and Executive Committees would be held Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Assembly Room of the Court House.

Plans will be discussed and formulated for the official opening of the Democratic campaign in Greene County and arrangements will probably be made for the services of various prominent Democratic speakers to open the "stump" campaign in the county.

Jake Daubert, Veteran Ball Player, Passes On

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 9.—Weakened by a double operation, Jake Daubert, captain and veteran first baseman, of the Cincinnati Reds, died early this morning. Blood transfusions, attempted yesterday, as a last desperate effort to save the ball player, were futile. Daubert, who was 39 years old, was extremely popular with the fans. He had been on the team six seasons, starting the year Cincinnati won a world championship, largely by Daubert's heavy hitting and clever work at first base. Mrs. Daubert was with him when he died at Good Samaritan hospital. His home was Schuylkill Haven, Pa. Funeral arrangements have not been completed. A son, George, is a freshman at Pennsylvania State College.

Daubert was struck on the head by a ball pitched by Allan Sothoron at St. Louis last May. Last week he was operated upon for appendicitis and gall bladder trouble.

Marion, O., Oct. 9.—A heavy fall hung over Marion today. Jake Daubert, veteran first baseman and captain for the Cincinnati Reds who died early today, really started his major league career out of Marion. He was first baseman for the Marion club in the old Ohio State-Pennsylvania league and was sold by the Marion club to Cleveland, which farmed him out to Toledo.

SENATORS BIDDING FOR SIXTH SERIES CONTEST

Griffith Stadium, Washington, Oct. 9.—The Senators were leading the Giants at the end of the sixth inning by a score of 2 to 1 when they counted two runs in the last half of the first, a walk by McNeely and a single by Harrison, captain and leader of the Washington tribe.

Two southpaws started the sixth game of the World Series. McGraw gave the pitching assignment to his capable port side, Nef, with Gowdy behind the plate. Tom Zachary is in the box for the Senators with Muddy Ruel receiving. The attendance was estimated at 37,000.

The Giants scored first in the "get-away" inning on a double by Captain Frisch and a timely single by Long George Kelly.

Just before the Giants began fielding practice, both teams gathered at home plate and with lowered heads stood for one minute out of respect to the memory of Jake Daubert, Cincinnati first baseman and captain who died Thursday morning following an operation.

CAN'T STOP HUBBY SEEING WOMAN

Columbus, Oct. 9.—Ohio supreme court has gone on record with a decision holding that the state courts can not enjoin a husband from seeing a woman other than his wife. The court dissolved an injunction secured by Mrs. Grace King in Adams county courts against Miss Jessie Snedaker, which kept Miss Snedaker from corresponding with or seeing Mrs. King's husband, Homer. Miss Snedaker and Homer had been friends, according to the court papers. Mrs. King sued Miss Snedaker asking damages and an injunction. She was given $5 damages and Miss Snedaker was enjoined from speaking or communicating with Mr. King and from "doing any act which would prevent King from giving his affections, companionship and support to his wife." The $5 damage still stands.

Neal Statement Attacks Donahey

Columbus, Oct. 9.—Clarence J. Neal, Republican state chairman, issued a statement alleging incompetency on the part of Governor Donahey and asserting that the "people of the state are paying the price in millions of dollars unnecessarily and unwisely spent, and in gross mismanagement. They are confronted with the choice of stopping this regime of incompetency by relegating Mr. Donahey to private life, or of giving free rein for another period of wasteful spending and maladministration." Attributing to Governor Donahey a statement that "there will not be enough money in the state treasury to run the state more than a month," Chairman Neal asserted, that by the governor's own words, he "will have the state on the verge of bankruptcy if he is continued in office."

SITUATION IN CHINA SERIOUS IS ADMITTED

Diplomatic Corps Has Message From Man-
chu Chief.

Pekin, Oct. 9.—The diplomatic corps was deliberating today on a communication received from Chang Tso-Lin, war lord of Manchuria, relative to their note demanding that he refrain from bombing Peking.

The move is seen as an attempt to draw the diplomats into recognizing him as a belligerent on an equal footing with the Peking government.

The communication was received by the senior consul at Peking.

Shanghai, Oct. 9.—Chekiang headquarters today admitted that the situation was extremely serious in spite of their asserted minor gains following a counterattack. The railway was still under Kiangsu artillery fire.

Eight thousand Chekiang troops at Sunkiang have been practically cut off from Shanghai. Reinforcements are being rushed from Shanghai in an effort to clear the railway. Heavy fighting is proceeding.

WITTER REPLIES TO RECENT ATTACK OF WOMAN CAMPAIGNER

Gives Reasons For Dismissal of Dr. W. F.
Bay

Columbus, Oct. 9.—Director Witter of the industrial relations department has replied to the attack made by Miss Rose Moriarty, member of the industrial commission, regarding the dismissal of Dr. W. F. Bay, special medical examiner. The director does not deny that the special medical examiner was discharged, but declares that the action was taken for the good of the cause and because the United Mine Workers of America, in their annual convention, asked for his dismissal because of discourteous treatment to injured workmen.

"To say that the department has been handicapped on account of his dismissal is plain deception," Director Witter says, adding that "when Harry L. Davis left office there were 4,000 claims pending for first hearing, and it required six weeks to get first payment to injured workers. Now the average number of first hearing cases is kept below 1,500, and the first compensation payment goes out in less than two weeks."

The director comes back at Miss Moriarty by asking for an explanation of the sudden dismissal of Harry C. Baker, director of claims; W. K. Merriman, chief clerk in the claims department, and L. J. O'Brien, auditor, all of whom were under civil service, with over eight years' experience in the department, and who were supplanted with deserving Republicans the day following dismissal, during the Davis administration, without the semblance of a civil service hearing.

TWO BURGLARIES REPORTED TO POLICE

Police are investigating two burglaries, at the residences of Thomas Canning, and Jacob Hyman which were reported at Police Headquarters Wednesday night.

Canning reported that thieves had broken into his home some time between Tuesday night and stolen a solid gold watch valued at $100. The thieves had raised a window at the back of the house which was unlocked, reaching the window by means of a step ladder in order to gain their entrance.

Hyman reported that his residence on North Galloway Street had been broken into Wednesday night near morning probably but nothing of value was missing. The burglars had reached a back window by means of a stool and raised it.

Police are investigating the burglaries but no clues have been found.

STORMS SHOULD NOT BOTHER ZEPPELIN ON TRANS-ATLANTIC FLIGHT EXPERT DECLARES

By DR. HUGO ECKENER (World's Foremost Authority on Zeppelin Airships)

Friedrichshafen (Germany), Oct. 9.—The doubts and anxieties of many people center upon the question of whether a heavy storm might endanger the ZR-3. I do not believe that many ask this question in the sense that a storm could damage the airship in the same way it smashes the sails and masts of a sailing vessel or devastates houses and trees on land.

Today almost everybody knows—or should know—that an airship is subjected to scarcely more stress in a storm than in calm weather because it drifts with the winds and does not resist except with its engines—and this is the same in storm as in still weather. Therefore the only justifiable question is whether the storm weather might prevent the airship from reaching its destination. Theoretically, doubts in this connection are certainly logical. A brief illustration: One airship will take along about 31 tons of benzine. This suffices for 72 hours if all the motors are run at full speed and will take the airship a distance of about 9100 kilometers (nearly 5,500 miles).

If however, there is a counterwind of only 10 meters per second—which is not much, then the airship will cover only 6,500 kilometers (nearly 4,000 miles) above ground in those same 72 hours.

In other words the ship would not reach its destination for the route mapped out for the Lakehurst journey is 7,000 kilometers (approximately 4,260 miles). But, if in the same circumstance, the airship travels only with cruising speed instead of full speed, then 31 tons of benzine would last for 100 hours and the ship would be able to cover almost 11,000 kilometers. In these 100 hours the ship would make 7,400 kilometers above ground—that is, she would reach her destination.

You can see from this simple example, which is as variable as you like, that stormy weather must indeed be carefully included in the calculations of a dirigible commander.

Also it can be seen that normally there is an assurance of safety not in traveling at full speed but more slowly. In addition, there is a saving of gas.

Capt. Steele to Command Lakehurst Station

Captain George W. Steele, U. S. N., a native of Marion, Ind., now in Germany as one of the Americans to fly to the United States on the trip of the ZR-3, will become commander of the immense Lakehurst, N. J., air station of the Navy upon his return to this country.

NOT AUTO STEALING BUT AN ACCOMMODATION TO TAKE 1913 FORD JUDGE DECLARES IN CASE

Cleveland, Oct. 9.—"That's hardly stolen car was a Ford of 1913 vintage. The case was continued until October 23.

Both defendants were released when bonds of $200 each were filed.

Mrs. Mickes was arrested Tuesday near Seville, when a farmer found her dressed in boy's clothing in an abandoned and dilapidated Ford. She broke down and confessed that two male companions had stolen a Cleveland car and the three were taking a pleasure jaunt to Wooster when their car went bad and the men went back to Cleveland "to steal another."

Mrs. Mickes said she was the daughter of William Davis, of New Philadelphia and that she was married a year ago when she was 16, at Wellsburg, W. Va. It was a runaway match.

A few weeks ago she came to Cleveland, and lived with a married sister, Mrs. Mary Winehart. She got a job in a restaurant and there she met "Beans," when he took her part when the proprietor "bawled her out."

The husband, Frank Mickes, was in court and took his wife in his arms when she left court.

"Of course I love her still," he explained. "She's a good kid, but easily influenced."

He added they would return to their home at 1305 Fourth Street, N. E. Canton, and resume their life together.

FOUR SHOT ON WAY TO OPEN UP MINES IN WEST VIRGINIA

Sandridge and three companions were ambushed while on their way to the Meriden mine in Barbour county. All four were shot and wounded. Sandridge probably fatally. Brown Talbott, son of Dr. L. W. Sandridge had given orders to resume operations at the mines of the Rock Island Coal company, of which he was superintendent. For several years the mines operated under an agreement with the union, but, after a shutdown of more than a month, officials of the company decided to reopen without a union agreement.

Sandridge and companions are in Elkins hospital.

FAMILY STANDS BACK OF WOMAN IN DIVORCE CASE

Mrs. Hall-Quest Received
At Home By Mother

Will Marry Perfect Lover
When He Is Divorced

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 9.—In-ashamed of the year she has spent outside the pale of the conventions, living as the wife of Erad W. Hart, Mrs. Shirley Iva Knox Hall-Quest today found sympathy and understanding in her perfect love in all-understanding mother love.

At the home of a son here the little gray-haired matronly widow, Mrs. M. W. Knox, who gave her daughter in marriage to Prof. Alfred Lawrence Hall-Quest at Redwood Falls, Minn., 16 years ago today, received that daughter back into the family fold and there was nothing of reproach for her transgressions.

"We stand back of her now," Mrs. Knox told newspapermen here today. And with the "we" she looked about her with assurance that she was speaking for the entire family—the businessman son, the two young sons, students at the University of Minnesota and the other daughter, a teacher in the public schools at Bemidji, Minn., where the Knox family has lived since they left Redwood Falls shortly after Shirley's marriage.

"We could tell from Shirley's letters that she was not happy," the mother continued.

"In fact she had told us that in her letters but Mr. Hall-Quest would not let her go."

"When he went to New York to take up his duties at Columbia University and left her in Cincinnati, it was then she really discovered that she really loved Mr. Hart. She did not miss her husband, did not care for him."

"My daughter has written me about the divorce, but I did not expect all this publicity to result. Mr. Hart had written me that he was going to do everything he could to protect her name. They are going to be married just as soon as Mr. Hart's wife secures a divorce."

"Shirley was young when she married Mr. Hall-Quest. Rest assured we will stand back of her now."

Backed by this staunch support of her family, Mrs. Hall-Quest today declared her determination to make all her old friends and the rest of the world see her affair with the former British army major as she finally made her husband see it.

How long she will remain here and whether or not she and Mr. Hart will go to Redwood Falls or Bemidji could not be learned. Efforts to learn whether the marriage ceremony would be performed at Bemidji also were unsuccessful.

DYE SAYS REPLIES TO CHARGES SILLY

Columbus, Oct. 9.—Democratic State Chairman Thomas E. Dye issued a statement declaring that attempts of the Republican organization to reply to Governor Donahey's comparisons "are so silly and flimsy as to be in keeping with the general evasion of anything and everything that contributed to making the Davis regime in 1921 and 1922 the most corrupt in the history of the state."

Dye continues: "It is noticeable that Harry L. Davis refrains from denying any specific allegations for the very good reason that any attempt in that direction would be fatal, making the situation worse for him. If anything, why is it that there is no attempt by the Republican organization to condone the expenditure of $73,042 to secure two nominations for Harry L. Davis, in 1920 and 1924, when the job pays only $40,000 for four years? For the same number of nominations Governor Donahey spent only $50."

SIDELIGHTS ON REPUBLICAN RALLY HELD IN XENIA WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Harry L. Davis and his party, were too late to attend the dinner that had been arranged in their honor at the Elks Club, Wednesday night, having a previous dinner engagement in Dayton. With his personal publicity man, James H. Lanyon, former Cleveland newspaper man, he arrived by auto from Dayton at 7:45 o'clock. Mrs. Maxwell became separated from the party in Dayton but was here in time for the meeting.

After the Elks' Club dinner, Dean Phillip Nash, of Antioch College, Yellow Springs and Congressman Free of California, were called on for short talks to fill in the time. Dean Nash gave interesting figures on a straw vote taken at Antioch in which Coolidge received 105 votes, LaFollette, 39 and Davis 32. Students from all over the country voted in the poll, he said.

Congressman Free met local Republicans in the reception room of the Elks' Club before the dinner. He said that when introduced in London Tuesday night, the woman presiding announced that he had permission to talk on any subject he wished excepting the climate of California. "That killed most of my speech," said the Congressman. Congressman Free sat near Mrs. C. C. Stephenson, Yellow Springs, during the dinner. She is a sister of former Governor Stevens of California whom the Congressman graciously said "was the best governor California ever had."

Herb Ellis, Yellow Springs, party devotee, was the first of the dinner guests to arrive. He came early and was ready to greet all comers until the full party had arrived. H. E. Schmidt, Hoke Smith, P. H. Creswell, L. T. Marshall, John W. Prugh, Dr. A. C. Messinger, D. O. Jones, Walton Spahr, R. R. Givere, Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson, III, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dean, Miss Helen Dadds, Mrs. George Wood, W. S. Rogers, H. P. Howard, W. O. Rickman and other prominent party leaders attended the dinner, which was marked by party harmony.

L. F. Clevenger, who became shummy with former Governor Davis in his numerous visits to the capital in the interests of state acceptance of the Bryan farm gift, was among those present at the dinner.

Jimmy Lanyon, Mr. Davis' personal publicity agent was the business member of the candidate's party, not excluding Mr. Davis himself. It is Lanyon's duty to keep in touch with all newspapers, to furnish them with advance copy of speeches, to wire the Associated Press and a number of newspapers the candidate's remarks each day and to answer all questions. He has been with the party two weeks. Several papers are taking everything he wires out, on the candidates trip, so warm are their feelings toward Mr. Davis.

Congressman Free says the difference between California and Florida is that California has an all-year delightful climate while Florida only has the nicest climate three months of the year. Advertising and care and selection of fruit has made the California fruit industry he believed. All fruit is selected and any producer sending out fruit that is not nice looking is put on the blacklist, he says. As a result only the best looking fruit bears the stamp of California growth and because of this feature the fruit draws better prices than other varieties.

Congressman Free does not know why he was sent into Ohio for this campaign when everyone he meets is already a Republican and going to vote for Coolidge. "Where work is needed in the doubtful states," he says "I feel like I am wasting my time in Ohio, where indications to me are that Coolidge will carry the state by 300,000 majority."

Almost the entire flock of candidates for the Xenia postmaster job were on hands on the meeting. Among those seen were C. S. Frazer, C. H. Little, Erskine Winter, M. F. Barrows, George Eckler, D. H. Barnes, John M. Davidson. Most of the County candidates were also on hand.

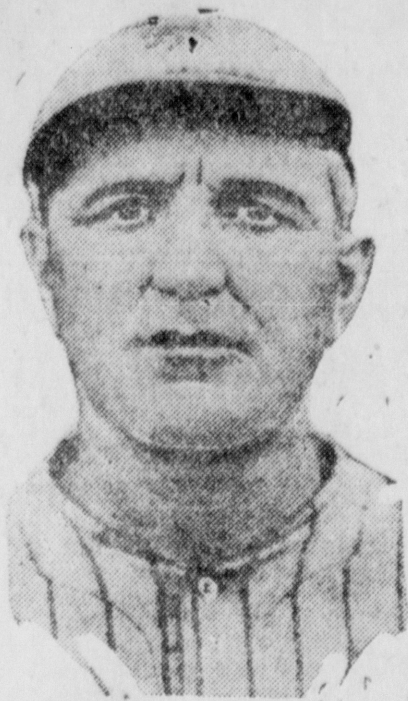

HOME CLUB HAS GUEST DAY

Observing guest day, members of the Home Club entertained at a delightful afternoon party at the home of Mrs. Wm. W. Anderson on the Jamestown Pike Wednesday. Hostesses for the afternoon with Mrs. Anderson were Mrs. J. C. Williamson, Mrs. C. E. Bone and Mrs. S. C. Anderson.

An informal program was enjoyed. Mrs. W. J. Cherry and Mrs. John Eavey sang several numbers, and a reading was given by Miss Helen Bradute. A salad course and an ice were served. Forty women enjoyed the afternoon.

WOMEN TAKE PLACE OF MEN IN AMATEUR SHOW COMING HERE

Women will usurp the places of their spouses as head of the family, and the domestic relations be generally upset in the home talent play, under the auspices of Aldora Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star at the Opera House, Oct. 15 and 16. More-over women will take their places in politics with a vim at the two nights' performances.

Rehearsals for the play have commenced under the direction of Miss Anne Schenck and the cast which has been selected includes some well known and favorite amateur performers. Proceeds from the play will be donated for the Masonic Temple fund.

Heading the cast as, "Mrs. and Mr. Polly Tick" are Mrs. J. C. Denham and Bushnell Turner. The rest of the cast is as follows: Sullivan O'Brien, Harry Kierman; Bridget O'Brien, Edna Miller; Billy, Robert Owens; Eva Edwards, Lawrence Allen; Mrs. Eva Edwards, Mabel McCoy; Birdie Mae Harris, Denver Osman; Mrs. Birdie Mae Harris, Margaret Regan; Mrs. Mary Lamb, Iva Laycock; Mr. Mary Lamb, Arthur Hyman; Mrs. Susan Johnson, Mrs. Bushnell Turner; Mr. Susan Johnson, Robert Wead; Edna Ray, Jack Eaves; Mrs. Edna Ray, Mrs. Dorothy Shaw; Father Time, J. J. Stoot; Dame Fashion, Janice Owens; Old Fashioned Girl, Anna McCormick; Up-to-Date Girl, Margaret Regan; Beruffled Dude, Lawrence Allen; Male Flapper, Bob Wead; Woman Who Wants to Vote, Mrs. Turner; One Who Says She Won't, Velma Huston. Sixteen pretty chorus girls and a group of children will add to the cast. Miss Lucille Denham will be the accompanist.

The play is laid in 1975. The women have by that time taken the reins of government and gradually exchanged places with the men. They dress in mannish clothes and attend to the business leaving the men to attend to the housework and the children. The married men are dressed in frills and furbelows and have lost all their distinguishing masculine habits and attire with the exception of their pants to which they cling with bull dog tenacity. Many screamingly funny situations arise including a revolution by the men when an attempt is made by the women to pass the "Anti-Trousers Bill."

The social committee which has charge of the affair consists of Mrs. Howard Norris, chairman; Mrs. B. L. Hughey, Mrs. Myrtle Meahl, Mrs. Olive Barnes, Mrs. Anna Schmidt, Mrs. Daisy Sheets and Miss Florence Mitchell.

WHO GETS THE JOB?

The young man who is known to spend all he earns—or the one who is industrious, frugal, and thrifty? The man who allows unworthy social competition to debauch his finances—or the one who lives a consistent and well-ordered life, with due regard for his future necessities? Anyone can properly answer these questions.

Every employer knows that the man who is provident and who is "getting ahead in the world," is more trustworthy and dependable than the one who spends all and ignores future necessity.

New Shampoo Keeps Blonde Hair From Darkening

A new Swedish light hair shampoo has been perfected, which not only keeps blonde hair from darkening—but which actually brings back the true, rich golden beauty to even the most faded, drab and lustreless blonde hair. This new shampoo called Blondex, is a natural product and brings its results in a natural gradual way. Ordinary shampoos, often tend to make light hair appear dull, faded and unattractive looking. But Blondex is a special shampoo for light hair only. Blonde hair is always attractive—but when it becomes uncertain in color, dirty-looking, faded, it is far from pleasing. So shampoo your hair this new way and see how much prettier, lighter fluffier it is after the very first shampoo. Blondex is highly beneficial to both hair and scalp. Contains no injurious dyes or chemicals. Highly recommended for children's hair. Get Blondex today for small cost and on positive money back guarantee from all dealers, such as Sayers and Hemphill, Sohn's Drug Store, Donges Drug Store, D. D. Jones.

HAD BEEN TAKING GREAT RISKS ALL HIS LIFE

The death of Captain Skeel at Dayton Saturday, recalls to his associates in the air service the narrow escape he had while practicing for the 1922 Pulitzer race at Detroit.

While taking off for a practice flight one day both wheels flew off his landing gear. With his plane in this condition, he was certain to crash if he attempted to land and there was no way he could be advised of his predicament. Plane after plane took the air carrying wheels which their pilots held aloft in an effort to signal the flier and warn him of the accident, but Skeel failed to understand. An attempt was made to head him toward Lake St. Clair for a water landing, but Skeel thought the other aviators were challenging him to a race.

For nearly an hour hundreds of spectators watched breathlessly while Skeel capered with fliers who were trying to warn him of his danger. Finally he ran short of gas and attempted a landing. When fifty feet from the ground another flier dived under him in a final attempt to keep him in the air until he could be told of his danger.

Skeel swung upward again, circles and then landed. The plane was demolished but the good luck which befriended him throughout his daring flying career until Saturday was with him and he escaped with a lacerated face and minor bruises.

VOTES OF WOMEN FOUND BIG FACTOR

Woman suffrage cannot be counted a failure in presidential elections, no matter how the women may avoid the polls in local fights.

Figures for the election of 1920—the first year of suffrage—show approximately 10,000,000 votes were cast by women, or 43 per cent of the women's voting strength and 37 per cent of the total of 26,713,800 votes cast for the presidential candidates.

Those figures, compiled from forty-two states by Simon Michlet, a Washington lawyer, in the interest of the "get-out-the-vote" campaign, also show that in 1920, when women hardly were prepared to cast a ballot, the percentage of them failing to vote was only a trifle larger than the men.

In the 1923 fall election the women did little better than 1920. The presidential election this year is expected to bring more of them to the polls.

Mr. Michlet's compilations show facts regarding women's votes in 1920 as follows:

In twenty states they cast 40 per cent to 45 per cent of the total vote for President.

In thirty-three states they polled 40 per cent and more of their own vote and in twenty-one states polled 50 per cent to 70 per cent.

In one-fourth of the states the percentage of women voting equals or exceeds the percentage of the male vote for the country at large.

THE "DOLLAR OF THE DADDIES"

The number of silver dollars in use has dropped from $84,000,000 in 1919 to $54,000,000 on July 1, 1924. Secretary Mellon wants the silver dollar put back into circulation. He has certain misgivings about that, saying:

"Silver dollars cannot be forced upon an unwilling public. If a proper appeal is made, however, and the appeal is backed by logic and reason, the American public can be counted upon to cooperate with the Government in its effort to supply the currency requirements of the country."

Possibly! but the silver dollar is a rather bulky bit of metal. The public has been rather spoiled. It prefers its dollar in paper. Even in the West, where silver always has been used, its use is lessened and unwilling. It may take a great deal "of logic and reason" to overcome the present public aversion to the "dollar of the daddies."

IF DISCOURAGED THINK OF HELEN KELLER

There is one book that is not a late one, by any means, yet is exceedingly well worth the time of any that have not already become acquainted with it. The Story of My Life, by Helen Keller, is the autobiography of a charming woman, who, in spite of tremendous handicaps, succeeded in developing her powers and living her life to the full. Blind, deaf and dumb from childhood, she is one of those sturdy souls who have resolutely set themselves to overcome evil with good. Her story scarcely mentions her deprivations, but is the simple tale of the ways and means by which her darkened life was filled with richness and beauty.

JUST FOLKS

Edgar A. Guest

WHEN THE BABY WAKES

When the baby wakes from sleeping
There is laughter in her eyes
And no hint of last night's weeping;
Farth has heard no sweeter notes
Than her gurgling and her cooing
As she greets another day;
Age may come to care pursuing,
But the baby wakes to play.

When the baby wakes from slumber
There is sunshine on her cheeks
There a smile, too swift to number,
It is music when she speaks,
And the way she shouts her gladness
Drives all thought of grief away;
Age must sometimes wake to sadness,
But a baby wakes to play.

Life is good, and well I know it!
Or my babe would wake to sigh,
In some dismal way she'd show it
As the days go slipping by;
When the morning sun comes shining
She'd not clap her hands that way
But, like us, would start repining
At the burdens of the day.

When the baby wakes, there's never
Any sudden thought of woe;
Last night's tears have dried forever,
Here's a face with joy below!
Here's the day you called tomorrow,
You can almost hear her say!
Age may sometimes wake to sorrow,
But a baby wakes to play.

Cincinnati, Oct. 9.—An appeal from the 20 years in the federal penitentiary and $5,000 in fines imposed by United States Judge John E. Sater, at Columbus, March 10, 1924, was filed in the United States circuit court of appeals here by William G. Benham and Dwight Harrison, both of Columbus, former officials of the R. L. Dollings company. Benham was president and treasurer and Harrison was vice president and secretary. The defendants were charged with using the United States mails to defraud through sale of stock.

Baltimore, Oct. 9.—Several women were injured and police reserves were called to quell a small riot when women shoppers fought to get into a 5 and 10-cent store here. The store had advertised a bargain sale. One woman was pushed through a plate-glass window and taken to the hospital. Half a dozen others were cut and bruised.

foot into it in some way! I am forever making rash remarks which make people dislike me. I do wish I were like Mrs. A, who is so discreet that she never takes a false step!

It is needless to point out that this woman was in the class which is guided by chance influences rather than by the individual will. She did not realize that Mrs. A. was not merely "discreet." Discretion is the outgrowth of perfect control. Mrs. A. was master of herself. And that is what we must all be, before we can become successful.

How Skinny Kids Can Grow Robust

Weak, undernourished, underweight boys and girls who are peevish, fretful and sickly need McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets.

Cod Liver Oil would do just as well, but what parent would be so cruel as to give them the horrible nasty tasting, ill smelling stuff, when sugar coated cod liver oil tablets made by McCoy's Laboratories of New York are as easy to take as candy and won't upset their delicate stomachs.

There's more vitamins of the first class in cod liver oil than in anything else and for that reason thin, scraggly, sickly children commence to live.

"The listless, backward boy needs McCoy's!"

up and take on good healthy flesh after McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets have been taken for just a few days.

Be sure and ask Sayre & Hemphill, H. C. Sohn, or any good druggist for McCoy's, the original and genuine Cod Liver Oil Tablet, if you want your delicate children to become strong, robust and active.

For grown-ups they are just as wonderful—one woman gained 15 pounds in five weeks, 60 tablets 60 cents and if they don't put 5 pounds of good firm flesh on any thin man or woman in 30 days, get your money back.

Today's Talks

BODIES, MINDS, AND PEARLS

Probably the most precious of all jewels is the pearl. Yet I am told that the rarest and most prized pearl may actually "wear out."

Continual wear is said to reduce the pearl's luster and often the shade. For this reason experts say that pearls must be exposed to sunlight.

If plenty of sun is given to pearls they retain their mellow luster and soft lights. Few people know this to be a fact.

Recently I read of a great doctor who treated tuberculosis and other serious wasting diseases merely by giving the patient months of sunlight.

Flowers dress up in their most royal garb under the love and kisses of the sun's rays.

And the mind that opens its windows and doors and looks for light, remains strong and full of health.

The sun cleans. Impurities die and wither under the blazing of the sun's rays.

The early races that lived under the sun, browned by its beating, were models of health.

Clean thoughts are those washed by the sun of clean desire.

Sunlight is mankind's protector. It lifts the beauty of the earth out of the ground at springtime and colors it gorgeously during the summer and then changes it all during autumn until the tired leaves and petals of the dying year tumble to their winter rest.

Life would all perish were it not for the sunlight.

And so in our hearts we would perish spiritually if we didn't let the sun in, if we didn't keep hunting for the light, and if we didn't give light to others.

A beautiful heart is something that the sun has touched.

Shoots Herself Through Heart.

Columbus, Oct. 9.—Mrs. Hazel Goldstein, 20, of Cleveland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hamm of Valley Crossing, near this city, shot herself through the heart with a revolver at the home of her parents, where she was visiting. Mrs. Goldstein suffered a nervous breakdown recently and that is believed to have prompted her to take her life.

HAVE COLOR IN CHEEKS

Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days you must get at the cause.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects.

They start the bile and overcome constipation. Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results. Millions of boxes are sold annually at 15c and 30c.

Newer Form of Iron is Red Blood Food is Red Blood Food

If your blood is thin, pale and watery, keeping you weak, nervous and run-down, you need rich, red blood with plenty of iron in it to give you strength, energy and endurance. It would surely astonish you to see how in two short weeks a little more iron in your blood would help renew the elasticity, the strength and energy of earlier days. It is the iron in your blood that enables you to get the good out of your food. Without iron, nothing you eat does you any good. Your food simply passes through you and your body is literally starving on three big meals a day.

This newer form of iron known as Nuxated Iron is like the iron in fresh vegetables and like the iron in fresh blood in concentrated form. It may be had from all druggists with a guarantee of entirely satisfactory results or your money back.

Duplex—exclusively Studebaker —a new kind of car!

A closed and open car combined—the advantages of both at an open car price!

Value Points New Big Six

The New Duplex-Phaeton Body—it solves the closed-open car problem.

Genuine Balloon Tires.

New Satin-Lacquer Finish.

Spanish chrome tanned leather upholstery.

New ideas in ease of operation and control.

Vibrationless Engine; forced-oiling system with new idea in oil supply. Full 75 h.p. block test.

Four-wheel Hydraulic Brakes optional—totally unlike any other system on American cars.

THE new Studebaker Duplex models give the comfort and protection of a closed car—with all the advantages of an open car, plus the good looks, riding comfort, interior finish and fittings that no open car could ever give!

Yet the price is no higher than that of an open car.

The appeal of its simplicity, convenience and durability is instant and decisive—with a touch of the hand you draw down the four roller enclosures and in thirty seconds your airy open car is a snug, comfortable enclosed car. With equal ease the enclosing sides can be rolled up into the roof and you have an open car again.

The Duplex body is especially built for the roller side enclosures, the roof is framed and shaped in steel—permanently beautiful and steel-strong to support the rollers, and the upper part of the Duplex is integral with the lower part. It is a unit body which harmonizes perfectly in beauty and function.

There is no other body like it on any other car at any price—because it is exclusively a Studebaker creation, made only by Studebaker. You can buy the Duplex from no other maker.

The new Duplex is available for each of the three new Studebaker chassis—the new STANDARD SIX, the SPECIAL SIX and the BIG SIX.

And these three new chassis are the evolution of the famous chassis of the five preceding years. Each year they have been improved and refined.

But this year the new models are climaxed with every tested and proved betterment that experience and science have thus far developed.

They are paramount exemplars of modern automobile design.

Simply stated, this means that money cannot buy more modernly perfect automobiles than the new Studebakers—we have the Duplex models ready for your inspection. Come in today!

THIS IS A STUDEBAKER YEAR

COMMISSION WILL CONSIDER TRAFFIC LAWS THURSDAY

Discussion and probable rejection or approval of the new city traffic ordinance drawn up at the request of the City Commission will take place at the meeting of the commissioners Thursday night at City Hall. The ordinance was given its first reading at the last meeting of the commission two weeks ago.

The ordinance is a "skeleton" affair, and was drawn up by City Solicitor J. A. Finney, and modeled closely after the state traffic laws. Some revisions may be made in the proposed ordinance but it is probable that it will be approved as a whole by the commission either at the Thursday night meeting or the next meeting two weeks later.

Another feature of the meeting Thursday will be discussion of the proposal of the Greene County Automobile Club for the removal of the flower boxes stationed at Detroit and Market Streets, Detroit and Main Streets and Detroit and Second Streets, which have been used as traffic beacons. It is the intention of the Auto Club to replace the flower boxes with new traffic beacons which are a more modern signal device.

Discussion of the proposed change will take place.

Health Hints by the Father of Physical Culture

BERNARR MACFADDEN

"Colds" result both from under-nourishment and from over-nourishment. By far the largest number of cases come from too much food and too little fresh air and exercise. The greatest single cause, perhaps, is an excess of starches, sugars and candies. Oatmeal, or bread and butter, covered with sugar, lollipops and other sweets, cause an overloading of the blood with elements saturating the appetite so that the child will not eat a sufficient amount of the foods which would supply the needed minerals even if he has the opportunity. Exposure to cold or to a draft is merely the "flash in the pan" that sets off the dry powder already present.

A "cold" untreated, or maltreated, is very apt to extend from a mere eliminative condition to one of severe functional and even organic derangement, and from the mucous membranes of the nose and throat it may extend to the bronchi, lungs, pleura, kidneys, etc. The proper treatment of this all too common complaint is not drug laxatives, with gargles, sprays, swabs, etc., though the latter in mild form may be used. In the case of under-nourishment, the treatment should be a brief diet of fruit (for one or two days) followed by the full milk diet for a week or more; and, in the case of the over-nourished, a fruit and water fast for from two to five days, followed by fruit, milk and vegetables as a main diet for some time. Hot tub baths, or better, wet-sheet or blanket packs to bring about perspiration, and these repeated daily, are especially eliminative and corrective. Two or three glasses of either hot or cold water should be taken while in either bath or pack, and if the pack is used the windows should be open. After the tub bath the child should be well covered in a thoroughly ventilated room. An enema should be given at the very onset, and should be repeated daily for at least the first three or four days. Friction baths may be given at any time. Equal parts of lemon or orange juice and honey diluted with water like a lemonade makes a very soothing "cough medicine," in case a cough develops during the cold. The child may drink it freely as desired. Lemonized or salt water may be used for a gargle or spray to the throat.

HEAD OF EXCHANGE BANK ISSUES PUBLIC STATEMENT TO PRESS

George Rife, president of the Exchange Bank at Cedarville, and in charge of affairs at the bank following the resignation of the Cashier Oscar L. Smith which was tendered Monday night, issued the following statement Thursday for the directors of the banking house:

"The visit of representative of the State Banking Department to our bank was at the request of the directors for the reason that the affairs of the bank were not being conducted by our cashier in a manner satisfactory to us. We desired a thorough investigation by the department of our conditions. The examination disclosed matters that required adjustment and the directors admit the requirements of the superintendent of banks.

"Our cashier has tendered his resignation which has been accepted and we are convinced that our institution will merit our full confidence, and we ask the hearty co-operation of the citizens of this community."

DAVIS CHALLENGE S DONAHEY IN SPEECH AT PARTY RALLY HERE; CONGRESSMAN FREE IS SPEAKER

Standing on the accomplishments of his own administration and strongly denouncing the Donahey administration for its alleged fulfillment of pre-election promises, besides openly challenging Governor Donahey to demonstrate to the people of Ohio wherein he had reduced taxes and cut the cost of a government, former Governor Harry L. Davis, Republican gubernatorial nominee carried his state-wide campaign to Greene County in an address before a large Republican gathering at the Opera House Wednesday night.

"The present governor," said Mr. Davis, "when campaigning in 1922, promised to reduce the cost of government and lower the taxes, and I challenge him to show the people wherein he has done this."

"I hold that party pledges are made to be kept, and men that falsify on a public platform in order to gain public office are as guilty of wrong doing as the man who perjured himself on a witness stand. We Republicans made certain campaign promises in 1920 and the records will back me up when I say that the Republican administration kept those promises."

"In spite of his pledges for the reduction of the cost of government in this state, the present administration, we find from a statement prepared by your auditor of the state, has increased the cost of operation approximately $900,000 a year. The statistics also show that it is costing more to run the expenses of the state by $2,463 a day than under the Republican administration. And of this, the increase a day is $1,032 for personal service alone."

"Do not take these figures as coming from me or any appointee of mine. They come from the bonded state auditor whom you elected. I now ask you, how do these facts agree with the pledge of lower taxes and reduced cost of government? Let the present governor come out from 'behind his desk' and give an accounting of his stewardship of your affairs as we are nightly inviting him to do."

"However, taxes may be reduced and the government cost cut. Economics were effected under the reorganization act, for which the Republican administration was responsible, which made possible the abolition of the state tax levy, thus removing with one stroke, $12,000,000 a year from the load placed on the shoulders of the tax payers of Ohio. A cash surplus or balance of $20,000,000 was brought about under this act in the state treasury, the largest in the history of the state of Ohio, and this after we had paid $7,500,000 from the savings of the re-organization toward the soldiers' adjusted compensation fund. "Further great economies may be brought about and practiced and greater surpluses piled up with the re-organization act in friendly hands, and these surpluses may be used to still further lessen the taxpayers' burden. Further economies will have to be practiced before more improvements may be made by the state. Then the state, instead of giving but from 30 to 40 per cent of the cost of improvements could raise the quota to 50 or 60 per cent or more, thus bringing to you a reduction in your county taxes."

"Good roads are essential and I would like to see them increased. But not at a greater cost to the abutting property owner. The public uses the roads almost exclusively and I want the public to pay for them. Under the re-organization act, surpluses could be accumulated under judicious operations, funds could be supplied by the state and this would mean great reductions in the cost to the abutting property owners."

"In the campaigning of the present Governor, he promised he would stick to his desk and tend to state affairs. This is no time to 'hide behind the desk.' He now issues statements from Columbus, and he has a 'kitchen cabinet' preparing these statements for publication. The time has come when he should come out in the open and explain himself."

"We are petitioning the present governor to publicly show us wherein he has kept his pre-election promises of economy. We are also asking him to explain many things connected with his regime and to publicly face the people with his story. We have asked him to present his administration to the people on the public platform as against ours for the approval of the people, and let them decide which has served them best."

"To date we have received no reply from the governor. Thus far in the present campaign, the only attempts at replies to our questions have been made by Mr. Harper, Mr. Bocher, Mr. Boulay, Mr. Truax and other appointees of the governor, who are trying to set up a defense for their own mistakes, and from some other, man known as Dye, who is supposed to be chairman of some political committee. The governor has failed to appear before any audience and give an accounting of his administration."

"Why am I a candidate, this year, when I turned down the Republican nomination several years ago? I am a candidate because of the 'whispering campaign' carried on over the state by my enemies, and have come to stand on the platform before the public to let them decide which of the two candidates is the best."

"I maintain that the people of this state should hold the present governor to a strict accounting for his administration, and must not receive the made-to-order excuses of his underlings. Let the governor explain himself. We demand that he face the people and shall continue to demand it throughout the campaign."

Notice of Appointment

Estate of Harry Haverstick, deceased. Eva Haverstick has been appointed and qualified as Administratrix of the estate of Harry Haverstick late of Greene County, Ohio, deceased.

Dated this 23rd day of September A. D. 1924.
J. Carl Marshall
Probate Judge of said County

"I have not been afraid to point with pride to the accomplishments of the Republican administration, and I have nothing to cover up. Unless the present governor has something to hide behind the smoke screen of his subordinates, let him also come out into the open before the people and do some explaining if he can."

Two other speakers addressed the Republican rally previous to the former governor's speech. They were Congressman Arthur Monroe Free, of California and Mrs. Thomas Maxwell, of Fremont, former state president of the American Legion Auxiliary, who is touring the state with Governor Davis' party. Mrs. Maxwell's husband was a former Xenian.

Congressman Free outlined the many things that have been done by the present Republican administration and his speech consisted entirely of national issues. He spoke of the present administration's accomplishments for the relief of the farmers and the industries.

In discussing the question of tariff, the congressman said this country had a larger foreign business during the past year than ever before and placed the credit entirely on the Republican administration.

"In my trip over the country," said Mr. Free, "I found the industrial conditions of the country in a straitened condition. The warehouses in the West were stacked to the ceiling with canned fruits. The banks had loaned all their money, and the farmers needed money. In the Middle-West the condition was even worse. In the New England states I found the mills closed and most of the plants closed, and 5,000,000 men out of employment. I found less cotton was being used, less coal, the exports had decreased, the United States revenue increased and the imports increased. This was the picture I took to congress when it went into session in 1921 a result of the Democratic regime."

"The Republican administration proceeded to rectify these deplorable conditions and brought prosperity out of chaos."

"The fight in the present campaign is between LaFollette and Coolidge as Davis is out of it. LaFollette advocates destruction of the Supreme Court and the ownership of all railroads, telegraph and the United States and public and so on, which is enough to put him out of the race."

Mrs. Thomas Maxwell directed her talk to the women of the audience, dwelling on the necessity of voting a straight ticket and denouncing the non-partisan ballot.

"The Republican party," said Mrs. Maxwell, "was instrumental in bringing the suffrage ballot to this country, and the Republicans engineered the first movement for national woman's suffrage."

L. T. Marshall, chairman of the Greene County Executive Committee, presided over the meeting as chairman, and introduced the various speakers. He introduced Governor Davis as the "ex-governor" and "next governor."

GOOD ATTENDANCE AT RALLY SERVICES AT 1ST M. E. CHURCH

The Rally Services held at the First M. E. Church, Wednesday evening, resulted in an attendance of more than 100. These services were marked with lively interest and Dr. Frank Stanton was well pleased with the outcome.

Mrs. H. B. Thompson sang a special selection and Prof. Sackett and George McKee gave short addresses on the value of the prayer service.

Dr. Stanton then delivered an address on "How to Put New Light Into The Old Prayer Meeting."

Dr. Stanton said in his opinion there are four fundamental means by which new-light can be put into the old prayer meeting. First: put more into it—interest, good will, and services; second: change of methods—the manner in which the prayer meetings are conducted are at least twenty-five years behind the time; third: avoid self-centered prayer meetings—obtain new objectives, keep looking out instead of looking in; fourth, hearty co-operation—there is nothing in the world that will succeed without hearty co-operation, regardless of the size of the undertaking. Co-operation among church members combined with interest and willingness to serve will readily put new light into the old prayer meeting, he said.

The Season's Most Distinctive Showing OF Irene Castle's Smartest Clothes

IRENE CASTLE
CORTICELLI FASHIONS
The RAVISSANTE Model

A refreshingly smart frock of Corticelli Satin Sa-On, giving the effect of a suit in front. The geometric collar and cuffs are edged with braid. The new wide belt is used, the waistline being low.

The drawings shown here were made from actual photographs, showing Irene Castle herself, "America's Best Dressed Woman," wearing her new fall costumes.

The Irene Castle-Corticelli Fashions for October! What a wealth of designing genius and artistic importation are revealed in the costumes just received.

Exclusiveness assured the particular woman through the fact that the number of garments obtained of any one model is rigidly limited.

Materials of a distinction to compare with the designing genius and masterly workmanship. Irene Castle stipulates that every garment be made of or lined with the same celebrated silks she herself wears.

IRENE CASTLE
CORTICELLI FASHIONS
The FRANCINE Model

Paris decrees tunic, and this interpretation, while following the decree, is something quite different. Black Corticelli Satin Tremaine is the material. The collar and vest, effect outlined with French rhinestone buttons is quite new.

IRENE CASTLE
CORTICELLI FASHIONS
The CONDE Model

An exotic, romantic vision is this lace dinner or evening dress. The ruffle of pleated net gives an alluring Spanish air. Rhinestones mark the juncture between ruffle and lace. The large applique rose, breathes of old Madrid. The foundation is of Corticelli Satin Eldora.

IRENE CASTLE
CORTICELLI FASHIONS
The DORNI Model

A charming frock of black Corticelli Satin Tremaine that fairly dances with its youthfulness. The dull side of the material is used, the bows are of black cira and the collar and yoke of flesh-colored georgette.

IRENE CASTLE
CORTICELLI FASHIONS
The CRYSTINE Model

Russian blouses have made their appearance in smart Parisian circles. This dress of Corticelli Satin Sa-On, thoroughly Russian in atmosphere, with original embroidery, new gold buttons and a wide belt, strikes a decidedly fashionable and appealing new note.

FIRE CHIEF WANTS AID IN OBSERVING PREVENTION WEEK

There are many civic and religious organizations in the city that may aid in helping the observance of Fire Prevention Week which began Sunday, according to T. B. Claire, fire chief. "The church can be of great value in the fight against careless fires and the resulting enormous loss of life by incensements relative to fire prevention every Sunday. Sermons on fire waste are always effective and serve as a valuable purpose in showing that fire should be considered as an act of God as was formerly the general belief, but that it is definitely due to human carelessness, he says.

"The Fire Chief is, of course, bound to be the central figure in any Fire Prevention campaign, and is often responsible for the whole fire prevention observance but although the local department will make the usual city inspections during the week to aid in the cleanup of all waste and fire hazards, it is a serious mistake," said Chief Claire, "to leave the entire observance to the chief of the department, as no campaign can be entirely successful without the co-operation of other city organizations."

The Boy Scouts may be enlisted to take part in the campaign, their part being to aid in the general cleanup work, inspection, distribution of posters and other activities. This week is to be generalized as a sort of "clean up week."

Some of the rubbish cleaned out of cellars and attics will have salvage value as junk, the chief says.

Takes Poison by Mistake.

Athens, O., Oct. 9.—Miss Lena Hettel, 19, of Athens, co-ed at Ohio university here, died from poison taken by mistake for a sedative.

What My Neighbor Says

Is of Interest to Xenia Folks.

When one has had the misfortune to suffer from backache, headaches, dizziness, urinary disorders and other kidney ills—and has found relief from all this sickness and suffering, that person's advice is of untold value to friends and neighbors. The following case is only one of many thousands, but it is that of a Xenia resident. Who could ask for a better example?

Leonard Jones, car inspector, Home Ave., says: "Heavy lifting and working in a cramped position brought on backache. I was stiff and lame across my back. After I had worked in a cramped position for a few minutes I could hardly straighten. Doan's Pills rid me of the attack."

SEVERAL YEARS LATER Mr. Jones said: "Doan's Pills cured me of kidney trouble and I have no further need for them."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills—the same that Mr. Jones had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

WALTER JOHNSON FAILS IN EFFORT TO HALT GIANTS AGAIN

New York, Oct. 9.—The Giants by hitting opportunely the offerings of Walter Johnson, veteran pitcher of the Washington American league champions, captured the fifth game of the world's series yesterday. New York now needs only one more game to clinch the world's championship.

Another crowd of 50,000 fans witnessed the contest. Their sympathies, which have been with the Senators throughout the New York games of the series, were particularly evident for Johnson yesterday. The veteran pitcher took his punishment grimly, and at the conclusion of the game stated it was doubtful if he would play ball next year. "I couldn't hold them," he said, referring to the game. "I had two chances to beat the Giants, but I couldn't hold them either time."

Jack Bentley, southpaw star, held the Senators to one run until the eighth inning, when he left under an outbreak that was started by Goslin's homer. But before Bentley left the game his own bat gave the Giants a lead they held to the finish. He caught one of Johnson's curves in the fifth inning for a home run into the upper tier of the right field stands, scoring Hank Gowdy ahead of him. This proved the deciding punch of the game, although the Giants came back in the eighth with a three-run rally that clinched their victory.

Another figure in the Giant onslaught was Freddie Lindstrom, 18-year-old Chicago schoolboy, who took the place of the veteran Heinie Groh at third base when the latter was injured and made four hits in five times at bat. He drove in two runs, sparked in the field and established himself as one of the greatest sensations of the series.

New York was the first to cross the plate. In the third Jackson beat out a bunt, took third on Bentley's single and scored on Lindstrom's hit. Two more runs were made in the fifth, when Gowdy singled and Bentley hit a home run into the upper right field stands. In the eighth three men circled the bases. Kelly singled to left and Terry walked. Wilson was safe when Johnson fumbled his bunt. Jackson fled to Goslin. Kelly scoring after the catch. Gowdy forced Wilson, but Terry scored and Gowdy took second on McQuillan's single over Bluege. Lindstrom singled to left, scoring Gowdy.

Washington made its first tally in the fourth inning on Judge's single, a sacrifice and Miller's safety. Another run was added in the eighth when Goslin hit a home run into the upper right field stand.

BRINGING UP FATHER

By GEORGE McMANUS

The Luxury of Love

by VIOLET DARE

AUTHOR OF "The Half-Time Wife," "Love or Fame?" ETC.

WHO'S WHO AND WHAT'S HAPPENED.

MARY HAYWARD, a famous beauty, for six months has been nominally the wife of

SIR NIGEL CAVENDISH, who promised her to release her at the end of that time, knowing that she loved

BRUCE GILLIAN, and had married him during a misunderstanding with Bruce. Leaving Nigel at a camp in the Canadian Rockies, she goes to Seattle to join Bruce and make arrangements for their marriage when Nigel has had their marriage annulled. But

WILMA RAYMOND, a friend of Nigel's, sends to the more sensational newspapers a story stating that she has eloped with Bruce, and recalling the sensational murder years ago of a man whose name was linked with Mary's. Determined to clear everything up, Mary leaves for the East without waiting for Bruce, leaving him a note insisting that she cannot marry him because of the publicity she has attracted. She goes to Maine to find CAMILLA WAITE, who cleared her of suspicion at the time of the murder by claiming that they were together that night.

TODAY'S INSTALMENT

XLIV—THE EYES OF THE PUBLIC.

MARY dressed with great care that evening, realizing that the eyes of all her old friends who had not seen her since before she married Nigel and went abroad would be upon her. She had been enough in the limelight in the days when she was "Lovely Mary"; now, as Lady Cavendish, with the breath of scandal blowing about her, she would be even more fully in the gaze of curious eyes.

She wanted to wear her simplest frock, but instead when she went downstairs she was gown in pale green chiffon weighted with silver-thread embroideries. It was the contradictory fad of the members of the Beach Club to dress elaborately for dinner even in this out-of-the-way spot, and Mary observed it in spite of her inclinations. Camilla, elaborately dressed, was standing in the wide hall with another woman and two men; she beckoned Mary to her side, and introduced the others, laying mocking emphasis on Mary's name.

"It's so hard to remember that you're Lady Cavendish, dear," she murmured through the smoke of her cigarette. "Will you still retain the title after Nigel divorces you?"

Mary's cheeks flushed hotly. In the old days she would have been ready with a stinging, apt retort, but days and nights of trying to reform her mode of thinking and turn double-barrelled sarcasm into kindness had left their mark; she could only flush and answer quietly "I hardly think so."

Camilla was inclined to be malicious; all through the evening she sent barbed darts toward Mary, until Vera Atwood, furious with anger, turned on her while they were playing bridge at the same table.

"Rather bad taste, isn't it, Cam," she drawled. "For you to take up the weapons against Mary just because Bruce Gillian liked her better than he did you?"

Mary, overhearing, winced. If only Vera hadn't said that! It would be kinder than ever now to persuade Camilla to tell the truth about Neale Phillips' death. Camilla was difficult enough at any time under the most favorable circumstances; now she would be impossible!

Vera had ended the one-sided warfare for that evening, at least, and departed for her own cottage at a late hour perfectly satisfied with Camilla was inclined to be malicious.

"They'd all gone to bed or out somewhere early in the evening; don't you remember?"

"Perhaps they had been sent out. But there was someone around the house. Mary could have proved her presence there somehow. No, my dear, that story has never been truthfully told. Mary has been indebted to Camilla ever since that night. And I believe that we're going to know why before very long."

"Oh, I don't want Mary to get into trouble," wailed Vera. "She's such a dear and has such a terribly hard time of it, always, in spite of being such a belle. I'm glad my daughter hasn't her fatal gift of beauty!"

Mary, meanwhile, had managed to have a word with Camilla, who was bent on going for a long motor ride, to drop in at a house party.

"Camilla, did you get my note?" she asked. "I left it with your maid."

"Note? I don't remember—there were so many—" the illusion of popularity was one that Camilla had always cherished. "What was it about?"

"Oh, I just said that I'd like to have a talk with you some time tomorrow. Mary answered lightly, but her eyes pleaded with the other woman for kindness and sympathy.

"Tomorrow? I don't know—I have so many things to do—" Camilla turned away. "I'll let you know in the morning," she tossed back over her shoulder.

"Huh! I've seen the time when she wouldn't have dared snub Mary Hayward like that!" muttered a man in the group nearby.

Tomorrow—A Ray of Hope.

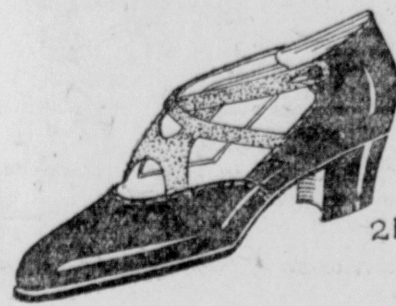

Prisoners Punished.

Columbus, Oct. 9.—Nine prisoners involved in an attempt to escape by way of a tunnel at the Ohio penitentiary were brought before Warden Thomas in the penitentiary court, where each was given a two-year sentence, which adds two years to the minimum under which they entered the institution.

Slayer Given Reprieve.

Columbus, Oct. 9.—James Brady, Erie county murderer, sentenced to be executed at the Ohio penitentiary Friday, was reprieved for the third time by Governor Donahey, and the date of execution set forward to Nov. 14, pending examination of records, and the holding of a hearing, if necessary.
